LOL Okay, we will put 12th on the calendar - surely you will have more fun things to do on the 26th!!

Thanks

My preference would be the 12th of August, I can also do the 26th, but its my 47th b-day so its my 2nd choice, unless of course there is cake.

I have been talking to Vince regarding a date for the meeting on this proposal and it appears that the 12th of August or the 26th would be good choices - the week of the 30th seems awfully close to the proposal date if it stays 9/3. What is a good date for you? This is all tentative, of course, but I would like to have some idea for scheduling as I have several other sites in the pipeline for meetings - and, of course, as always, if dates need to be slipped, we will.

Thanks
